Description

The 2027 Scout 195 Sport Dorado is expected to appeal to boaters who want a compact, capable and stylish dual-console boat for everything from relaxed family cruising to light fishing and watersports; imagine setting out for a calm morning run, dropping a line in a favorite cove, then switching effortlessly to an afternoon tow or harbor cruise.

Key highlights include:

- a versatile dual-console layout suited to both comfort and activity
- Scout's reputation for quality construction, smart storage and clean deck design
- family-friendly seating that makes social time on board easy
- practical features for coastal cruising, lake days and weekend adventures
- the potential for modern helm technology and efficient outboard performance
- a size that is manageable to tow, launch and store while still feeling confident on the water. For buyers comparing small sport boats, the 2027 Scout 195 Sport Dorado is a strong option to watch, especially for those seeking a premium-feeling boat that can handle fishing gear, coolers, passengers and plenty of fun without feeling overly complicated.
